The school intends to provide an intensive training course for graduate students and young researchers who are working in the field of development and international economics. This year the focus will be on social norms in developing countries.

For further information and teaching material, please refer to: <http://www.dagliano.unimi.it>.

Participants

The school is targeted to graduate students, doctoral students and post-doctoral researchers in economics and related disciplines. Students are expected to attend the school full time.

Fees and Scholarships

Participants will be charged 550€ covering registration, accommodation, meals and background material. A limited number of fee waivers can be assigned to students from Developing Countries.

Applications and deadlines

The participants will be selected by the Selection Committee on the basis of the information included in the application forms.

There will be a few slots for students' presentations, and priority will be given to those going on the Job Market this fall.

Applications can be downloaded from:

http://dagliano.unimi.it/wp-content/uploads/2019/04/Application_18th_ss.docx and should be submitted to centro.dagliano@unimi.it.

The deadline for submission is May 24, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted. Applicants will be informed by email about the results by June 7, 2019.

Location

The school will take place at Palazzo Feltrinelli, on Lake Garda (Italy). This beautiful historical Villa is now owned by the University of Milan and is dedicated to workshop and meeting activities. Gargnano is a small resort village on Lake Garda, about 150 km east of Milan. Local Information will be provided to participants in due course.
